Still the wood is dim and lonely, Still the plashing fountains play, But the past and all its beauty, Whither has it fled away ! Hark! the mounted echoes eay Fled away? Still the bird of night complaineth-Now, indeed, her song is pain-Visions of my happy hours, Do I call, and call in vain, Hark! the echoes cry again All in vain

Cease, oh! echoes, mournful echoes! Once I loved your voices well; Now my heart is sick and weary. Days of old a long farewell! Hark! the echoes sad and dreary Cry farewell, farewell !

RICHEST DIADEM

What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God Himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, harsh and dry, or, worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Real the following and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

New York, April 19, 1858.

New York, April 19, 1858,

Dr. Wood:—Dear Sir.—Permit me to express to you the abligations I am under for the entire restoration of any hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agrecable.

I am, dear sir, yours truly.

PROF. O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir.—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and give it my wife, who concersons of decided virtue and excellence is cluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair.

CHARLES CARDEW. NEW YORK, July 26, 1857.
Par. O. J. Wood: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative, as being the most efficacious article I ever raw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore the confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color it also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who

J. C. KILBY. Paor. Woon—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up, grow out, and turned back to its former color, (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I DR. S. HENRY BEARD cheerfully recommend its use to all. J. D. HOES.

Chicago, Ill., May 1, 1857.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds 4 a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 hor cent more in proportion, and retails for $3
